KING LEOPOLD of Belgium recently paid a visit to Miss Dorothy Tennant and heartily congratulated her upon her approaching marriage to Mr. Stanley. The regard and admiration entertained by King Leopold for Mr. Stanley are of so high an order as to induce the suggestion that his Majesty will be present at the marriage in Westminster Abbey.

A TELEGRAM has been received in New York from Henry A. Root, who is now in Butte, Mont., saying that the estate of his late uncle, Andrew J. Davis, has been found to be worth $12,000,000. At first it was only estimated at $5,000,000, but so much cash and first class commercial paper has been discovered that twice that sum will be realized. Root is one of the thirteen heirs to the estate.

The conferees on the Senate Anti-Trust bill have concluded their labors and will report to their respective houses. The section introduced in the House by Mr. Bland, of Missouri, and amended by the Senate relating to combinations to prevent competition in the transportation of persons or property was the only point in dispute. The conferees decided upon a limitation of the prohibited combinations, making only those illegal which raise the rates of transportation "above what is just and reasonable."

HITROVO, the Russian Minister to Bucharest, has been summoned to St. Petersburg to receive the censure of his Government for the bungling manner in which he managed the Panitz conspiracy against the life of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria. When the plot was discovered Mr. Hitrovo was openly accused of having instigated it and the censure has never been refuted. The ostensible reason for his recall is to enable him to exculpate himself from the charge of complicity, but beyond doubt, so a dispatch says, the real reason is that he is to be disciplined for failing to carry the conspiracy to a successful issue.

In the British House of Commons Mr. Henry H. Howarth, Conservative, asked whether any thing had been done to relieve the sufferers from the appalling famine in the Indian. According to reliable advices the population was starving and cannibalism was prevalent. The people were eating any thing—dogs, rats, and snakes being used for food. Around Tokar and Kassala hundreds of persons were dying daily from starvation and in other parts the state of affairs was even worse, nearly the whole population having perished. Sir James Ferguson replied that relief had been given in every district that could be reached by the Government.

The United States Consul at Callao, Peru, has notified the State Department that the Peruvian Government has leased to an English syndicate the famous quicksilver mines of Santa Barbara. When in active operation these mines were the most productive in the world, but they have not been worked for more than half a century. Under the terms of the lease it is necessary for the lessees to form a company in Europe with a capital of $200,000, and a deposit has already been made as a guarantee of the performance of the contract. The coal lease is for fifty years and the Government receives a compensation of 25 per cent. of the full paid shares of the capital of the company.

TENNESSEE STATE NEWS.

Assessment Laws.

The following interesting matter in connection with the assessment laws is contained in a circular letter addressed by State Comptroller Allen to County Tax Assessors:

In reply to numerous inquiries in regard to the assessment and equalization of property for 1890, I will state that the valuation of real estate should be arrived at by estimating the value on a sale of one-third cash and balance in equal payments of one and two years, deducting 10 per cent. for cash.

All personal and mixed property should be assessed at its cash value. All property belonging to a bank, including surplus and undivided profits, should be assessed to the bank, and all the shares of stock in a bank should be assessed to the individual holders thereof at its market value.

The property, real, personal and mixed, of all persons, copartnerships and joint stock companies engaged in the manufacture of goods, wares, merchandise or other articles of value which is used and held for manufacturing, completing and preparing the goods, and the property of every quasi public corporation or other corporations public in their character, such as gasworks, waterworks, electric lights, street railroads, dummy railroads, and the property of every other corporation except boards organized under the laws of this or any other State of the United States, or of any foreign State (except banks and banking associations) is required by law to be assessed at the full value of its capital stock, including its franchises, easements and incorporeal rights and corporate property as a part of said capital stock, which shall in no case be less than the actual value of all its shares of stock, together with the actual value of its bonded indebtedness combined.

If a corporation owns any property, real, personal or mixed, not used for corporate purposes, it should be assessed to the corporation like property of individuals is assessed. I will state further, that all land and other notes and accounts, whether belonging to corporations or individuals (without exception), should be assessed at their value.

The Board of Equalization, in equalizing the assessments, should take as a basis of equalization the value of the property as prescribed by law. In other words, if a person's property worth $1,000, according to the provisions of the law, and it is assessed at $700, and B owns property worth $1,000, according to the provisions of the law, and it is assessed at $800, the value of the property of both should be increased to $1,000, instead of reducing the value of B's property to $700. The law, whether right or wrong, should be faithfully enforced, and I trust that you will make your assessments strictly in accordance with its provisions, thereby saving you liability on your bond, and saving me the trouble and embarrassment of going before a court for a revaluation. Non-resident taxpayers are entitled to no exceptions. If you have any doubts about the assessment of the property in this State of a corporation which also owns property in another State, or in a country other than your own, please confer with me, submitting at the same time a statement from the corporation showing the relative value of the property of the corporation in your county bears to the entire corporate property of the corporation.
